- c. In general, to whom do you want your estate to be distributed?

1. Husband:

2. Wife:

- Your wills will set up basic trusts for any minor children, grandchildren, or other relatives who might inherit under your will. At what age should these trusts terminate and distribute the assets outright to the children?

12. Fiduciaries

Your executor is responsible for probating your will and distributing your assets to your beneficiaries. Married persons often appoint their spouses as primary executor. Many banks and other institutions will serve as executor for a fee, but often it is best to appoint one of your heirs or family member or close personal friend who is willing to serve for free.

If you have minor children, you should appoint a guardian to take care of them if both their parents die before they reach age 18 (you can also appoint a married couple as co-guardians). You should also appoint a trustee to manage any money the children inherit. The trustee and the guardian are frequently the same person; if you prefer to appoint different people to these posts, please make a note in the margin. If you wish to appoint more alternates than the space below allows, please use the back of this sheet.

13. Other Estate Planning Documents

a. Statutory Durable Power of Attorney

This document allows your designated agent to handle all of your personal financial affairs, including the execution of contracts, motor vehicle registrations, real estate sales, bank account transactions, etc., and is important if you become incapacitated in any way. Spouses often name each other as their primary agents.

b. Medical Power of Attorney

This document allows your designated agent to make decisions on your behalf regarding your health care in the event you cannot make them yourself. It becomes effective only upon your incapacity as certified by your physician. Your agent will have authority to consent to surgery, check you into a nursing home, obtain records about your care, etc.

c. Living Wills

This document instructs physicians and hospitals what action to take if you are suffering from a terminal or irreversible condition and are unable to communicate or make decisions for yourself. We can discuss this document more fully when we meet, but for now please consider the following questions:

- 1. A "terminal condition" is one from which you are expected to die within six months even with all available life-sustaining treatments. If you are suffering from a terminal condition, do you request only those treatments needed to keep you comfortable, or do you request all available life-sustaining treatments?

Him:

- _____ Comfort treatment only.
- _____ All available life-sustaining treatments.
- _____ Undecided for now.

Her:

- _____ Comfort treatment only.
- _____ All available life-sustaining treatments.
- _____ Undecided for now.

- 2. An "irreversible condition" is one from which you are expected to die even with all available life-sustaining treatments, but with which you may remain alive for more than six months. If you are suffering from an irreversible condition, do you request only those treatments needed to keep you comfortable, or do you request all available life-sustaining treatments?

Him:

- _____ Comfort treatment only.
- _____ All available life-sustaining treatments.
- _____ Undecided for now.

Her:

- _____ Comfort treatment only.
- _____ All available life-sustaining treatments.
- _____ Undecided for now.

d. Declaration of Guardian in the Event Need Arises

This document allows you to designate who you want to serve as your guardian in the event a guardianship is instituted. The purpose of the Statutory Durable Power of Attorney is to avoid a costly guardianship; however, if a guardianship is instituted, the durable power of attorney is automatically revoked. An important feature of this document is that you can designate who you do not want to serve as your guardian and the judge cannot appoint those persons under any circumstance. Most people generally choose for their guardians the same persons they appointed in their Statutory Durable Power of Attorney and their Health Care Power of Attorney; if this is what you wish to do, just leave this section blank.
